September 2004

PRESS RELEASE...PRESS RELEASE...PRESS RELEASE...PRESS RELEASE

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN!!

The 5th Annual Lavender Film Festival will kick off on Friday evening, Sept. 17th at the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center (30 West Dale Street). Opening night will include a reception at 6:30pm, with words of welcome by former Colorado Springs mayor Mary Lou Makepeace at 7:30pm, followed by the feature film "Goldfish Memory" from Ireland, at 8:00pm.

The 9 Festival features were chosen from literally hundreds of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered films from the Toronto and San Francisco Film Festivals, and include titles from France, Canada, South Africa, Japan, Italy, Spain, the Netherlands, as well as the United States.

Passes may be purchased online at www.pplff.org, or by calling (719) 38.MOVIE/(719) 386-6843. Full Festival Passes are $75.00; Half Passes are $50.00; Four Film Passes are $35.00; and Opening Night Passes are $25.00. Tickets for individual films are $10.00 each, and may be purchased at the Fine Arts Center Box Office. Call (719) 634-5583. Credit cards are accepted.

After opening night, the Festival continues on the 18th & 19th.

P.S. I am enclosing 2-Half Passes for your use.

Sincerely,

Bob Armintor
Ticket Coordinator